Subject: GenFlex July 1, 2007 Polyiso Price Increase

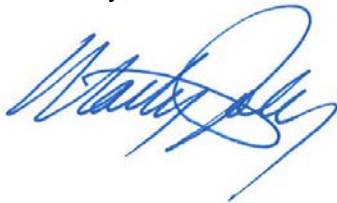

Further cost pressure from our raw material suppliers force us to announce a 5% price increase on all GenFlex Polyiso products effective with shipments beginning on July 1, 2007.

In addition, please be aware that raw material pricing volatility still exists and could lead to additional increases within the coming months. We will make every attempt to mitigate the effects of cost increases and do our best to communicate changes to you on a timely basis.

If you have any questions, please contact your GenFlex Territory Sales Manager or me.

Thank you for your continued support of GenFlex Roofing Systems.

Sincerely,

Marty Jolly
